The One Hundred and Twenty-first Call for Bonds Issued Yesterday.

The 121st call for bonds was issued by Secretary Folger yesterday afternoon. It calls for "all registered bonds of the acts of July 14, 1870, and Jan. 20, 1871, continued, during the pleasure of the government, under the terms of circular No. 52, dated May 12, 1881, to bear interest at the rate of 31 per centum per annum, from Aug. 12, 1881, and which constitute the residue of those issued under the acts of July 14, 1870, and Jan. 20, 1871, known as continued 5's, and which have not herotofore been called, or which have not been offered for surrender and exchange into 3 per centum bonds of the act of July 12, 1882.

"The bonds embraced in this circular are those last dated and numbered, as required by section 3 of the act of July 14, 1870, and include those which have been issued on transfers since the 120th call was issued."

These bonds will be paid Nov. 1, and the three months' interest due Nov. 1 will not be paid by checks forwarded to the holders of the bonds, but will be paid, with the principal, to the holders at the time of presentation.

Any of the bonds embraced in this call will

Any of the bonds embraced in this call will be redeemed prior to their maturity upon presentation, interest being paid to the date of such redemption.

New York, July 26.—The stronger and improved tone of the market vesterday afternoon on dividend paying stocks for investment accounts, it is alleged, shows that investors have begun picking up securities at the present low prices, and this fact caused considerable hope of better prices. The bears generally believe the improvement will hast for several days. The whole list has an undeniably firmer undertone, and very probably the turning point has been reached. The most confident of this class think the lowest prices have been reached for the season. Russell Sage is most sanguine over the market, but the privilege brokers who deal with him say he is not selling anything very near the market. There was some large buying orders yesterday from Saratoga, and a leading commission house which has exclusive wires bought a batch of Lake Shore and New York Central on such telegrams. Mr. Smith's vestors have begun picking up securities at Central on such telegrams. Mr. Smith's brokers were heavy buyers of New York Central, and Sternberger & Fuld were also large buyers. R. S. Elliott was the largest purchaser of Lackawanna, and he bought extensively of the Northern Pacifics also, Groeshock & Schley are and to have a contract the purchaser of Lackavanna, and he bought extensively of the Northern Pacifics also. Groesbeck & Schley are said to have executed the largest buying order on Northern Pacific preferred. Something important was promised in telegraph matters to-day, and the stock bears on Western Union intimated that the railway operators would be ordered out whenever Western Union interests can be most harmed by it. Dispatches received from Minnesota by prominent parties in the street say that the damage to crops in the northwest by recent storms has been immense. Dispatches are unconfirmed on account of defective telegraphic communication.

The Western Union office at Norwich, Conn., was closed by the operators to-day.

Chicago markets are casier all around, but there is no special change in outlook. The weather in chicago is warm and cloudy.

Government bonds were strong on the belief that a call was issued, and low money rates will create a demand for bonds.

rates will create a demand for bonds.

R. S. Elliott is buying Lackawanna extensively. J. Wallace has been buying Lackawanna all the morning. H. Clews & Co. have been buying the whole market this morning. Hotchkiss & Burnham have bought most Western Union. Hughes bought St. Paul, and the sellers were Fuller, and Barney & Raymond. DeMotte & Durant bought New York Central. Van Emburgh sold. DeMotte bought Northwest. Barney Snith bought 1,000 Northern Pacific prefeired. Barney & Raymond, and Fleming sold.

A correspondent of a leading cotten firm here telegraphs from Texas as follows: Crop backward owing to the late planting and unfavorable weather. Cotton is not fruiting well. The drouth has seriously injured the crop, and it still continues. Worms have done damage to a great extent. The bell worm has appeared in some sections.

The stock market is very quiet. In New York Central Krighny offered, the stock and York Central Kirkner offered the stock, and York Central Kirkhor offered the stock, and Henriques sold with scattering buyers. In Lake Shore Gernstein sold; Jameson offered Western Union. In St. Paul Scranton & Willard bought, and Humbert sold. Harry Wilson was a large buyer of Oregon Transcontinental. New York Central lends flat to 1-64; Jersey flat; Lackawanna I to 2; money at 2 to 2; sterling unchanged. It is reported from Washington this moraing that the remaining operators in the Western Union maining operators in the Western Union office there will quit work in a body at noon to-day sure.

The Eccuing Post says the Western Union company is still obstinate and has enough operators for the small business offering. The men are equally obstinate. A Washington bond call will be issued this afternoon. Ex-Treasurer Polk, of Tennessee, has neon. Ex-Treasurer Polk, of Tennessee, has been declared guilty and sentenced to twenty years imprisonment and a heavy fine.

REVIEW. The market opened firm, especially for North Pacific common. The bears were screwing Denver and Louisville and Nashville, but they did not yield much. The aunouncement from Washington that the operators who held back from the strikers would quit at noon had no effect upon the Western Union. Sterling was very quiet. Government bonds were firm on belief that the call would make a demand for bonds. At poor Union. Sterling was very quiet. Government bonds were firm on belief that the call would make a demand for bonds. At noon stocks were strong, and an advance of $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent. was recorded. About 1 o'clock stocks were steady, but very duil, there being a slight decline from the day's best prices, except Northern Pacific common. It is reported that the operators are willing to concede something from their extreme demands of a wock ago, but the Western Union declines to listen to anything but unconditional surrender. On the second call stocks were weak, duil, and it to $\frac{1}{2}$ below the best prices. The extending of the strike in telegraph caused uncasiness, and the market remained almost at a standstill. Early in the last hour a reaction set in, and the Villard stocks led the market. Northern Pacific common being noticeably firm. The market continued duil to the close. The new complication in telegraph tended to make the undertone rather weak. What little business there was done showed a downward tendency in prices, and the close was weak in comparison to what had been expected.

A DESOLATE REGION. Something About the Alleged Placers in Lower California. San Francisco Examiner, June 27. Last Saturday Capt. M. E. Joyce, of Tombstone, arrived in this city. This gontleman has the prominence of being the leader of the first party of white prospectors who visited the Mulege placer mines, Lower California, after the news had gone abroad of the rich discover-ies in that section. Last evening he related in a graphic manner the experiences of his expedi-tion, and the failure to find any satisfactory signs of the coveted metal. Rumors were put in circulation in Tombstone district about the in circulation in Tombstone district about the middle of April regarding the golden sands awaiting the prospectors' pans at Mulege, and on the nineteenth of the month he amounced his intention of going thither. Immediately he was beseiged by a host of energetic, ambitious fellows who wished to accompany him, and in the remarkably short space of twenty-four hours thirty-two men were equipped for the trip. In the company was one woman, Miss Nellic Cashunn, who is well known in Arizona as a successful hotel proprietress. The party reached Guaymas on the twenty-third. They succeeded in chartering a vessel for $300, in which were loaded burres, tools, and sufficient provisions to last for many months. The which were loaded burros, tools, and sufficient provisions to last for many months. The captain of the boat was instructed to land at the nearest point to the mines where fresh water could be procured. After a tedious sail of five days, two of which were spent in a dead calm, the restless voyagers were beached at Trinidad. Not a moment was lost in proceeding inland. Water on the beach was scarce and hardly drinkable, and hence the miners started with a scant sup-hence the miners started with a scant sup-beach was scarce and hardly drinkable, and hence the miners started with a scant supply.

Capt. Joyce remained behind for a couple of days, believing he could overtake his party without difficulty, as he had an unusually fast mule, while his comrades would be obliged to go slow with heavily laden pack animals. He reached the party within four hours after he started, much to his astonishment, and found affairs in a terrible state. They had lost their guide, the water was gone, and there were no prospects of finding any very soon. Miss Cashman had lost her mind through thirst, and was unable to recognize her most intimate acquaintances. The question was whether to push on or return, and it was decided to move on at all hazards. Fortunately within twenty-five miles they reached the Santa Gertrudes mission. They had traveled altogether about forty-five miles. This mission was founded by the Jesuits 246 years ago, and fourteen years ago it contained a population of 600 mountain tribe Indians, and now only fourteen survive, governed by a chief who is now eighty years of ago. No care was apparently taken in burying the dead, as hundreds of skeletons were found bleaching on the sand surrounding the old church. Some of the sacrilegious visitors dead, as hundreds of skeletons were found bleaching on the sand surrounding the old church. Some of the sacrilegious visitors kicked teeth out of the skulls and brought them home as mementees of their terrible trip. The church built by the missionaries is well preserved. It is of stone and of great strength. The building in situ-ated in a flat arroye, through which runs a shallow stream. Trees cover the banks, and shallow stream. Trees cover the banks, and about nine acres of land are under semi-bar-baric cultivation. There is a story that the aged chief has hearded a barrel of gold for his hard contivation. Here is a story that the agod chief has hoarded a barrel of gold for his children when he dies, having purchased it from other natives. The ruler's reticence prevented the statement being substantiated.

The Tombstoners remained at the mission but a sufficient time to obtain imperative rest, and then obtaining the chief as a guide, started for the plains. Nine miles out a natural tank was reached. It was thirty feet deep and contained twelve feet of water. The liquid was hardly more palatable than that of the beach, and no wonder, for the guide said that the water had not been replenished for seven years, there having been no rain in that time. The next day the mines were reached. They are situated at the head of a narrow gulch, and cover an area of about 30,000 square feet. Two hundred and fifty Mexicans and Indians were there working. They told the new comers that one man had been making $2 per day, but when closely questioned it was found that he had discovered one churk of sold worth.

but when closely questioned it was found that he had discovered one chunk of gold worth $50, and this he considered forty days' work. The others did not fare so well. The new The others did not fare so well. The new arrivals then began to work, after supplying themselves with water at fifteen cents per gallon. They took out five pans of dirt and obtained $1.50 in gold. This naturally disgusted them, and, a vote being taken, they denounced the expedition as a fallure and departed for home, sadder but wiser. On the way back they encountered other parties, who, upon hearing their dismal tale, also turned Sonoroward. At Guaymas fully 1,000 persons were found waiting transportation across the gulf, but Capt. Joyce's account changed their plans and it is probable no other white man plans, and it is probable no other white man has since visited Mulege, Capt. Joyce is a fine looking man, tail and well formed, with a face that denotes courage and sagacity. He has all the qualities of a dashing and gallant leader, and his career in Arizona fully justifies his popularity as a frontiersman. Do Nor waste your money, and risk injuring your hair by purchasing uscless washes or oils, but buy something that has a record—a remedy that everybody knows is reliable. EVERYBODY smokes the Longfellow Cigar, Mr. Dezendorf. New York Herald.

The Virginia democratic convention, which moets at Lynchburg to-day, will be greatly meets at Lynchburg to-day, will be greatly delighted and encouraged by the manifesto just issued by Mr. Dezendorf, who has become chairman of the republican state committee. His tirade against Mahone is as bitter as the bitterest boarbon can wish; and if he can have his way the Virginia republicans will once more, under the lead of a few office seekers, help the democrats to success and get their reward in offices given them by their democratic allies. That is now a tolerably state game of politics; offices given them by their democratic allies. That is now a tolerably state game of politics; and the Virginia republican voters will probably ask themselves what they, who are not office seekers, have to gain by helping the democrats to beat Mahone.

By the way, Mr. Dezendorf says he has abundant proof of maladministration in the Norfolk navy yard, but he will not lay it before the court martial called to try officers when he has accused. Very well; lething whom he has accused. Very well; let him give his proofs to the Herald correspond-ent. What he needs is to show the public that abuses have been committed. If he can prove it the public will condemn the navy yard management. But he has now cried out so long without furnishing proofs that the public suspects he has none.

Pictures for the Grand Army. The Rocky Mountain News waxed pictorially patriotic in its welcome to the Grand Army of the Republic, and issues a special number in honor of the military visitors to Denver. Editor Stapleton is prodigal in the use of printers ink, and his special artists must have worn themselves to skeletons getting up the designs which ornament four very much distended pages of the paper. An entrancing profuseness of mountain scenery and architecture and bird's eye views of Denver and its environs is spread out before the gaze of the subscribers and transient purchasers.
